Practice

All areas within the Commercial Group, specifically:

Commercial: contractual and commercial disputes concerned with the supply of goods and services, secured finance agreements, the national and international carriage of goods and horses, associated financing agreements, agency, partnership and receivables financing. Insurance, specifically coverage and subrogation claims.

Company and Insolvency Law: involving personal and corporate insolvency, minority shareholders' claims, directors disqualification proceedings and a wide range of applications under the Companies Act

Employment: in particular, unfair dismissal, race and sex discrimination, redundancy and equal pay claims

Sport: all commercial aspects of sport including sponsorship and agency contracts. Disciplinary and Appeal Tribunal representation with a particular expertise in equestrian sport.

Experience A wide experience of court, advisory and drafting work in all areas in which chambers specialises, including appearances in the Court of Appeal, the Queen's Bench and Chancery Division of the High Court, the Companies Court, The Technology and Construction Court, County Courts, The Employment Appeal Tribunal and Employment Tribunals.

During 1999 worked for the leading Asian law firm of Allen & Gledhill in Singapore, gaining experience of large scale commercial and insolvency litigation through close involvement in numerous corporate, banking and commercial cases in the High Court and Court of Appeal. Appeared as a Junior with leading Senior Counsel in an international commercial arbitration. Since the return to the UK practice has concentrated solely on Commercial, Insolvency and Sport Related work within Chambers' Commercial Group. During 2004 lectured in company and commercial law at BPP Law School, London. In February 2005 in Malaysia was a principal lecturer on civil advocacy to the Kuala Lumpur Bar Association.
